2023 MINNESOTA CHAPTER

High Five for Supplies
Sponsorship Opportunities

#KidsCelebratingKids

WHO ARE WE?

Simon Says Give is a Twin Cities nonprofit founded by Mandi Simon. This year, we are celebrating 10 years since Mandi first had the idea for Simon Says Give as an eight-year-old! In that time, we have partnered with other passionate kids across the country to open chapters in Massachusetts and South Dakota, and we have had a direct impact on the lives of over 200,000 youth in-need.

We support Kids Celebrating Kids® in three ways: We celebrate Birthdays for kids of families struggling with poverty and homelessness. Our annual High Five for Supplies® drive supplies school supplies for low-income K-12 students. We engage young people in service work and development through Youth Leadership opportunities.

On April 13, 2012, we celebrated our very first birthday with our friend Ben. Since then, Simon Says Give has celebrated nearly 10,000 birthdays with 10 of each child's friends. That's 10,000 birthday wishes, and nearly 100,000 happy kids impacted through Birthdays in a Box!

Alongside birthdays, our High Five for Supplies® drives have provided over 55,000 young students with the backpacks and school supplies they need to succeed in school and become tomorrow's unstoppable leaders. We are doing our part to ensure that every young person, regardless of socioeconomic status, is well-equipped to let their brilliance shine.

True to our "Kid-Founded, Kid-Operated" motto, we have grown our Youth Leadership programming through our Kid Advisory Board at the Minnesota Chapter, and developed our South Dakota and Massachusetts chapters to impact thousands of children with their passion projects.

Just 11 years since little Mandi Simon had a big idea, Simon Says Give has had a direct impact on over 250,000 kids. This dream could not be a reality without the generosity and support of our donors, volunteers, and strategic partners.

HIGH FIVE FOR SUPPLIES

CHALLENGE

The cost of school supplies should never be a barrier to a child's success. For almost over a decade, Simon Says Give has worked to tackle this issue in our communities with the High Five for Supplies drive.

- According to Credit Karma, "Just over half of parents who say they plan to take on debt to pay for back-to-school shopping expect to take on more than $300 in debt, with another one-in-five taking on more than $500 in debt to pay for things like clothing and other school supplies."
- We believe children are less likely to be bullied when they have the proper supplies and we hope our support will help reduce that risk.

APPROACH

- We are partnering with Kits for Kidz to provide high quality, grade-appropriate school supply kits to Twin Cities area students as they prepare to get back to the classroom. Our goal is to provide 10,000 kids with all the supplies they need to succeed in the classroom.
- Our network of nonprofit partners spans across the Twin Cities metro area. These partners help us to distribute our backpacks and supplies directly to the children who need them most.

IMPACT

To date, High Five for Supplies has provided over 55,000 Minnesota children with backpacks and supplies! We also reach thousands of young students around the country as High Five for Supplies continues to grow in Minnesota and in our South Dakota and Massachusetts chapters.

IMPACT VALUE

- 10,000 supply kits and/or backpacks for K-12 kids in need
- The supply kits are tailored to grade level: K-2, 3-5, and 6-12
- 20+ nonprofit partners that benefit from our partnership
- Investment in the future leaders of our local community
